UNIT 4 "RESPECT FOR OTHERS"

OVERVIEW: RESPECT FOR OTHERS

Unit four consists of four lessons centering on respect for individualized personhood. The Lesson seeks to layout, emphasize and re-emphasize the consequence of giving and receiving respect. The target audience for this unit and lesson is all grade levels.

The concept is to present 15 minutes of instruction or teaching and 45 minutes of practical application which must be assessed for accuracy, content and context. This is then combined with an understanding, expression and nexus on connecting points to choices within the scenario and identifying consequences for each choice made.

Negative Characters:

Bubble Head Bill
Crack Head Charlie
Trap Tom/Tamara

Positive Characters:

Sergeant Respect©
Detective Right Way©
Counselor Collaborative©
“Do Right” Crew©
“Goodwill Ambassador”©

Encouraging youth to be a part of the “Do Right” Crew© and help “Rebuild Respect 4 Life”© by choosing the ‘Golden Rule’ of mutual respect to “Just Do Right!”

Sergeant R.E.S.P.E.C.T.®, Detective Right Way® and Counselor Collaborate® shifting the paradigm of the moral compass. Guiding the “Do Right” Crew® and you, back to the basics of character building foundations of moral reinforcements, to be the change for the common good.

The four lessons are:

1. Temperance
2. Wisdom
3. Positive Communication
4. Trust

Each individual lesson encourages students to become a part of the “Do Right” Crew®, to be used in a building block approach. The building block approach uses each lesson to building the monthly theme “Respect for Others.” Within the months having five (5) weeks, this day will be a time of review and reinforcement of the monthly themes.

- Week 1 / Temperance
- Week 2 / Wisdom
- Week 3 / Positive Communication
- Week 4 / Trust
- Week 5 / Review of Themes

Back 2 Basics Applications:

Comic Books, Character reinforcements on Clothes, Hats, Skull Caps, Hoodies, Sweat Shirts, Awareness Bracelets, Bookmarks, Book Covers, and Notebooks to name a few.

SAMPLE LESSON 1: TEMPERANCE

- Definition: Temperance – it is a noun; meaning moderation in action, thought, or feeling (restraint); abstinence from the use of intoxicating drink.
- Youth Translation: To be cool; to chill; never letting anybody control your response; always able to keep your actions chilled.
- Teaching Point: Inappropriate touching; response to what someone else has said; offer to drink alcohol or to take drugs.

SAMPLE SCENARIO #1:

Bubble Head Bill while at school has touched Sally on her buttocks with his hand. Trap girl Tamara is laughing about it and encouraging Bubble Head Bill to do more. Later Crack head Charlie offers drugs.

DISCUSSION AS “DO RIGHT” CREW® & “GOODWILL AMBASSADORS”®

- What would you do if you were Sally?
- What would happen after Johnny responds?
- How would you feel if you were Sally?
- What’s wrong with Bubble Head Bill?
- What is Tamara’s problem?

PRACTICAL APPLICATION (Write Down):

- Which character you would most like to be and explain?
- Which character you dislike the most and why?
- Research and write down the school policy for fighting – what is the police rule for fighting – what do the courts say about assault.
